

LENNART ALBERTSEN

Senior Consultant

Current Responsibility

Lennart Albertsen is a senior consultant in the Düsseldorf office of Milliman.

His consulting activities include, among others:

- Life insurance consulting for financial accounting (HGB and Solvency II)
- Migration life insurance
- Advancement of tools

Professional Work Experience

Before joining Milliman, Lennart worked two years as an associate at PricewaterhouseCoopers GmbH in Cologne.

In particular, he worked on the following tasks:

- Preparing annual audits of direct insurance and reinsurance companies
- Consulting on life insurances with data migration
- Advancing tools based on Excel and R
- Conducting internal audits of pension funds
- Analyzing actuarial reports and trustee reports

Prior to that, Lennart was employed as a trainee and working student at PricewaterhouseCoopers GmbH in Düsseldorf and Berlin.

During this time, he was involved in the following tasks:

- IFRS consulting for capital-market-orientated companies
- IPO preparation
- Drafting of comfort letters

Education

- Studies of Business Mathematics at Technische Universität Berlin, focused on stochastic analysis, degree: M.Sc.
- Studies of Business Mathematics at Technische Universität Berlin, degree: B.Sc.

Lennart has qualified technical experience with:

- VBA
- R
- Matlab

Affiliations

German Association of Actuaries (DAV)