

STEVE WHITE

EA, FSA, MAAA

Principal and Consulting Actuary

+1 206 504 5528

Current Responsibility

Steve White is a consulting actuary with the MicroInsurance Centre in Milliman. He joined the firm in 1985.

Professional Work Experience

Steve served as Milliman's CEO from September 2012 through 2021. Milliman grew significantly in the breadth and depth of services and solutions during his tenure as CEO.

Prior to being elected CEO, Steve served as a consulting actuary. His area of expertise is the retirement field, with particular emphasis on pension administration outsourcing services and actuarial services for large- and medium-sized corporate clients and Taft-Hartley plans.

Steve directed pension administration outsourcing services for single-employer retirement plans.

Steve served as the consulting actuary for several Taft-Hartley pension plans. Steve also assisted clients with the design of defined benefit and defined contribution plans, negotiations on pension plan changes, the valuation of defined benefit plans, experience studies, asset/liability projection studies, and participant communications.

Professional Designations

- Fellow, Society of Actuaries
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

Affiliations

- Steve served on the Corporate Advisory Council of the International Association of Black Actuaries.
- Steve previously served as a board member of the Western Pension and Benefits Conference, and as chairperson for the Western Pension and Benefits Conference's annual meeting and spring seminar.
- He participates in workshops and meetings of both the Society of Actuaries and local professional organizations.
- He has served on the Society of Actuaries Examination Committee.

Education

BA (magna cum laude), Mathematics, University of Notre Dame